Vernon Street
The Vernon Street building is between the Merrion Shopping Centre and Millennium Square. Some on-street parking is available, but it is expensive and limited to two hours. We would suggest that you use one of the multi-storey car parks shown on the map below.

Geoff Hodgson House
The Geoff Hodgson House is a five minute walk from our Blenheim Walk and a ten minute walk from Vernon Street. The office is on the first floor of a converted church building, opposite the Fenton pub on Woodhouse Lane. On arrival ring the buzzer to speak to the department you require.

TRAVEL

Arriving by car
Follow the signs for the city centre, Leeds General Infirmary and the universities. Arrows on our map show the city’s one way system and the most direct route to take.

Arriving by rail
The Vernon Street building is a ten minute walk from Leeds railway station. The Blenheim Walk building is a further ten minute walk from there. Taxis are available from the station forecourts or you can catch bus 1 from the stop on Infirmary Street outside the station. Get off the bus at the Parkinson Tower University of Leeds.

Arriving by coach
The Vernon Street building is a ten minute walk from the coach station and Blenheim Walk is a further ten minutes from there. Taxis are available outside the station or you can catch bus 6, 28 or 97. Get off the bus at Parkinson Tower University of Leeds.

Arriving by air
Leeds Bradford International airport is about eight miles from the city centre. Manchester airport has regular, direct rail connections to Leeds railway station.
