

Press Release

Light Night 2013 - Circus of the Senses

On Friday 4th October explore Leeds with your friends and family, as we shine a new light on the city with over 50 free art events and a spectacular night to remember.

Leeds College of Art present an array of sculptural performance installations, projections, moving image, interactive games and digital films this year for Light Night 2013. From 5pm until late Light Night opens the doors of our public buildings, museums, galleries and open spaces, showcasing a vibrant mix of events for all ages, from light installations to street theatre, music, theatre, performance, film, dance, circus, exclusive exhibitions, family friendly activities, making & doing, music & storytelling.

Explore our historic building at Vernon Street and take part in the Table Top Circus and Clown Bingo, see Super 8 films inspired the National Fairground Archive and be ready to cycle on the eco-powered projection unit powered by bikes. At our Blenheim Walk building we have an outside projection by Graham Tansley. You will see a fantastic collection of films, interactive installations, projections and activities by students, alumni and staff of Leeds College of Art. The evening includes activities for visitors of all ages – explore the building to see how you can get involved. Editor's Notes

Leeds College of Art

Founded in 1842, Leeds College of Art is an innovative institution that has changed the way art qualifications are taught and structured in Britain today.

We combine academic and vocational excellence in all our undergraduate programmes. Our focus is to put student's talents to practical use, so their creativity is channelled towards a successful career or postgraduate study.

Our students and staff create a unique community of vibrant, ambitious and deeply creative artists and designers. We are based in Leeds, an internationally acclaimed centre for teaching and learning in addition to being a leading hub for creative and digital industries.
