

Press Release

Does your child have a creative streak?

Leeds College of Art are launching the highly anticipated 'Saturday Art School'. Running every Saturday morning for 16 weeks, the art & design courses offer children and young people to fantastic opportunity to explore their creativity, discover new skills, and get to grips with our amazing, industry-standard studios and workshops.

Available for children aged 9-18 the courses offer a Mixed-Media Sculpture, Fashion & Textiles, and 2D Drawing & Printmaking. These master-classes offer a fantastic opportunity for those in school years 5 to 13 to explore their creativity, discover new skills, and get to grips with our amazing, industry-standard studios and workshops.

We offer courses in Mixed-Media Sculpture, Fashion & Textiles, and 2D Drawing & Printmaking. For those in school years 11 to 13 we also offer Portfolio Preparation, helping students to engage in specialist art & design activities, build confidence, develop life skills, and prepare a broad portfolio to show to potential colleges/universities or employers.

It's all about rolling your sleeves up and getting stuck right in! Thanks to our small class sizes and expert tutors, you'll be encouraged to experiment with a variety of materials in activities which will stimulate and change the way you think and which will push your creativity within a relaxed and supportive environment.

Editor's Notes

Leeds College of Art

Founded in 1842, Leeds College of Art is an innovative institution that has changed the way art qualifications are taught and structured in Britain today.

We combine academic and vocational excellence in all our undergraduate programmes. Our focus is to put student's talents to practical use, so their creativity is channelled towards a successful career or postgraduate study.

Our students and staff create a unique community of vibrant, ambitious and deeply creative artists and designers. We are based in Leeds, an internationally acclaimed centre for teaching and learning in addition to being a leading hub for creative and digital industries.
